

Uniting for Ukraine Overview

Uniting for Ukraine provides a pathway for Ukrainian citizens and their immediate family members who are outside the United States to come to the United States and stay temporarily for a two-year period of parole. Ukrainians participating in Uniting for Ukraine must have a supporter in the United States who agrees to provide them with financial support for the duration of their stay in the United States.

The first step in the Uniting for Ukraine process is for the U.S.-based supporter to file a Form I-134, Declaration of Financial Support, with USCIS. The U.S. government will then vet the supporter to ensure that they are able to financially support the individual whom they agree to support. Legislation signed by President Biden on May 21, 2022, also allows beneficiaries to apply for federal public benefits, such as Medicaid, and for programs and services funded by the Office of Refugee Resettlement.

Tips for Securing Housing

For Ukrainian Newcomers

You can find temporary and permanent units on the housing search platforms below:

- Airbnb
- Zillow
- Apartments.com
- Craigslist
- 4Stay
- RentCafe
- AffordableHousing.com
- HotPads

Housing should be safe, sanitary, affordable, and preferably near shopping centers, employment, schools, and accessible by public transportation. Landlords generally place their ads one to two months before they want a prospective tenant to move into their property. Research affordable apartment buildings and ask about availability, unit sizes, and lease agreement details.

Get in Touch with Resettlement Agencies

Resettlement agencies provide services to newcomers, including assistance with finding housing, employment, medical, and mental health services, and access to any other service or information you need to get settled in the first few months. A regional agencies directory can be found here.

For Community Sponsors

If you are sponsoring a Ukrainian refugee family, you are responsible for locating safe and appropriate housing for newcomers. Finding short-term options are necessary, as newcomers will need to be present in the U.S. to sign a lease. Temporary housing options can include:

- Hotels (with accessible kitchenette)
- Airbnb stays
- Separate living space attached to a private home
- Hosting within the sponsor's home

Other options include using your local network and resources, working with a local real estate agent, and contacting local housing authorities as they will likely have contacts with landlords -- especially those that provide low-income housing.

Landlords need to understand your role as a sponsor and your planned support to the newcomer.

Questions for landlords should confirm:

- Average monthly rent
- Maximum unit occupancy
- Security deposit and associated utilities
- Terms for return of security deposit
- Co-signer requirements (if applicable)
- When/if co-signer can be removed from lease
- Break lease clause and associated penalties for early lease termination
- Possibility of shorter-term lease or month-to-month options
- Who is responsible for routine maintenance and repairs

Locating affordable housing is the most challenging part of the resettlement process. If you need public housing assistance or want specific information about public housing programs such as housing choice vouchers, this link will connect you to your local public housing agency. It is important to find housing that a newcomer family can afford, even after you are no longer supporting them.

It is also essential for community sponsors and volunteers to understand local and federal housing laws when arranging housing for a client. Affiliates are subject to the Fair Housing Act \(FHA\) and are responsible for ensuring that housing selections are not made on the basis of race, ethnicity, religion, or national origin.
